From our Kitchen

These dishes, because they must be served with special sauces, do not lend themselves to open flame broiling, but must be saute or grilled in butter and are so prepared in our main kitchen by a well trained and supervised staff. For something that is different and unusual you should try one of the following:

BROILED WHOLE RAINBOW TROUT . . $2.25
From the cold waters of the Colorado River, basted in creamery butter and Almondiene Sauce.

A tantalizing selection of delicacies stolen from the depths of the Gulf Stream.

ONE-HALF CHICKEN CACCIATORE . . $2.50
Young tender chicken—fried to a golden brown in imported olive oil. Minced onion and parsley are added with just the proper amount of Sherry wine covered with tomatoes and mushrooms and a delightful bouquet of herbs from the Mediterranean, it is cooked in a casserole for 35 minutes. A dish fit for a King!

CHOPPED SIRLOIN $2.00
Choice beef freshly ground, broiled and served on a sizzling platter. Choice of Bordelaise or our special Roquefort sauce.
